Re: Grevy Gerard Pierre-Louis v. United States, 20 Cv. 3010 (CM) / 16 Cr. 541 (CM)

Dear Chief Judge McMahon:

On January 7, 2021, after review of the arguments raised in defendant's motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255, this Court ordered (1) the defendant to return an executed waiver of attorney-client privilege; and (2) defense counsel to prepare affidavits addressing the allegations in the defendant's motion, and to provide those affidavits to the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York. (See Dkt. No. 101.) The defendant's signed waiver was docketed on February 10, 2021, see Dkt. No. 103, and the Government has now received affidavits from James Branden, Conor McNamara, and Russ Kofman (attached as Exhibits A, B, and C, respectively). The Government therefore respectfully requests that the Court provide the Government 30 days to respond to the defendant's petition, and the defendant 30 days thereafter to file a reply, if any.

Respectfully submitted,

AUDREY STRAUSS
United States Attorney
